Kill Shot Bravo: Sniper FPS Tips and Tricks: MissionsThere are two types of missions in the game: Assault Missions and Violation Missions. Both missions can bring you items and gold that you can use to buy at the store. Assault missions are based on the score. Aim for explosives because enemies are stationed near them at the beginning. Blowing an explosive will kill several enemies at once. Get more points for doing headshots, multiple kills, long-distance kill shots, and V.I.P. kills. Violation missions require you to use a shotgun. They are easier to do, but will require you to upgrade your weapon as a precondition for the mission. Watch out for enemies with knives as they will rush to kill you. Eliminate them quickly! PvPIn PvP, your goal is to find and eliminate a human player before him. Take a look at your range counter carefully, the more it fills up, the closer you are to your target. Improve your sniper's zoom level and accuracy to easily find and eliminate your opponents. Note that if your opponent looks at you through his sniper, you will notice a small flash of light in your screen. Move quickly and cover up until the flash disappears.
